OSCAR M. JULSON

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, April 4, at the Paetznick Funeral Home with the Rev. Harvey Sander officiating, for Oscar M. Julson. Leslie and James Julson, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Herman Julson at the organ, sang two selections. The Masonic rites were also held at the Home due to the inclement weather. Burial was in the Groton cemetery. Pallbearers were four nephews, namely, Del, Leslie, Robert and James Julson and George Riggs and George Amsden.

Mr. Julson was born on May 7, 1887, near Groton, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Julson. He grew to manhood in this vicinity. In 1911 he was united in marriage to Emma Bernet. The young couple engaged in farming southwest of Groton. They had no children and following the death of his wife, Mr. Julson departed for Minneapolis, where he was employed for a number of years and later remarried, going then to California to make their home.

Mr. Julson passed away March 29, 1957, at a hospital in San Francisco, after suffering a stroke.

He is survived by his wife, Annette, three step-daughters and two step-sons, and two brothers, Ed. and Herman of Groton.

Mrs. Julson and daughter, Mrs. Blanche Hanson of San Francisco, attended the last rites held here.
